Organization Statement

Zoriyah Group Family Daycare is a licensed, home-based early childhood program in Queens Village, NY, dedicated to providing a safe, nurturing, and stimulating environment for young learners. Our program emphasizes individualized attention, developmentally appropriate activities, and consistent daily routines to foster holistic growth. We prioritize strong partnerships with families, working closely with parents to support each child's social, emotional, and cognitive milestones. Built on a foundation of trust, open communication, and dependability, Zoriyah Group Family Daycare offers a welcoming "home away from home" where children feel secure, valued, and inspired to learn.

Job Description

- Providing attentive, nurturing care for infants and young children, including bottle feeding, soothing, and following safe sleep practices.
- Supervising children closely at all times to ensure a safe, calm, and structured learning environment.
- Facilitating age-appropriate sensory play, creative arts, and early learning activities.
- Assisting with meal and snack preparation, service, and cleanup.
- Supporting children with personal care routines, including diapering, toileting, and handwashing.
- Maintaining a clean, sanitized, and organized classroom space, including toys and learning materials.

- Assisting the Lead Provider with daily parent communication and upholding all program policies and NYC/NYS childcare regulations.

Responsibilities

The Group Family Daycare Assistant is a flexible, part-time on-site role in Queens Village, NY, working directly alongside the Lead Provider to deliver high-quality care and early education. This position begins as a 3-day-per-week assignment with the potential to expand to 5 days per week based on program needs. Key responsibilities include:
