

Choosing a Career in Early Childhood

Consider these five career paths to have an impact on the lives of young children

Work directly with children

Work directly with children on a daily or frequent basis in positions like:

Teacher
Audiologist
Child care provider
Pediatrician
Speech therapist

Deliver services to families

Help families provide for their young children in positions like:

Clergy
Family therapist
Parent educator
Public health liaison
Social worker

Lead and organize services for children and families

Direct and organize programs for families in positions like:

Consultant
Child care director
Recreation director
School principal
Program coordinator

Provide support to those who work with children and families

Work with professionals who serve children and families in positions like:

Researcher
Staff developer
Higher education professor Policymaker

Provide goods and services to the general public that assist children and families

Serve the general public to support children in positions like:

Librarian
Museum docent
Writer
Software developer
Nutritionist

Which career in early childhood is right for you?
Scan the QR code or visit earlychildhoodny.org/cdsc/decisionsurvey.php to take our Career Path Survey!

EARLY CHILDHOOD CAREER DEVELOPMENT CENTER

earlychildhoodny.org/cdsc
careeradvisor@earlychildhoodny.org
646-664-8283