New York Early Childhood Professional Development Institute

Brooklyn, NY

Coach / PD Provider

Posted on February 3, 2020

Job Description

MISSION

Children need to spend their most critical years with dedicated, educated, trained, and well-compensated individuals in order to thrive. The New York Early Childhood Professional Development Institute leads the work to establish and implement an early childhood workforce system to ensure funding, standards and competencies, career development resources, qualifications and credentials, professional development (training and strengths-based coaching), and program quality assurance and improvement for individuals who work with young children throughout New York. Housed at the City University of New York, the Institute is a fast-paced, dynamic public/private partnership that is committed to the early childhood workforce across New York State.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

The Informal Family Child Care Project (IFCC) – a project of the Institute – works to elevate the quality of care for children in home-based child care settings in New York City. IFCC assesses, supports and advocates for home-based child care providers, and builds their skills and capacity to provide safe, high quality care through a comprehensive array of professional development opportunities and services.

IFCC will hire a bilingual part-time Family Child Care Professional Learning Facilitator (Facilitator). The Facilitator will prepare and facilitate series-based professional learning experiences for home-based childcare providers in New York City. The Facilitator reports to the Director of IFCC and works closely with all facilitation staff.

Responsibilities

Professional Learning Facilitation

The Facilitator will:

- Prepare and deliver series-based professional learning experiences to home-based child care providers
- Assist in the collection of feedback and data about IFCC professional learning programs
- Work collaboratively with the IFCC team to develop and implement new professional learning content and strategies

Other Duties

- Participate in planning meetings and staff gatherings as required.
- Perform special projects and other duties as assigned.

Qualifications
