

Head Infant And Toddler Teachers

Care-a-lot Pittsford

Fairport, NY

Teacher

Posted on January 5, 2022

Job Description

Care-a-lot is looking for caring, professional and dedicated individuals to lead our infant and toddler classrooms. Ideal candidates will have experience working in with children ages 6 weeks-18 months old. Experience with classroom management, supervision and parent communication. Head Teachers work side by side with families to nurture infants and toddlers to grow and develop in a supportive, caring and safe atmosphere.

Responsibilities

- Developing parent relationships and communicating with parents regularly, including classroom orientation and daily reports on children's activities
- Maintaining classroom records and keeping necessary written documentation
- Communicating effectively and directly with other staff
- Maintaining a positive work climate, teaching our curriculum, and having FUN!

Qualifications

Associate degree in Early Childhood, Child Development or related field, OR Child Development Associate (CDA) or 9 college credits in Early Childhood, Child Development, or a related field
2 years of experience related to caring for children
Infant/Toddler Child Care Credential

Care-a-lot believes in promoting from within and provides assistance in pursuing CDA in Infant and Toddler. Head in training positions will be considered.

Application Instructions

Applications can be sent to shannon@carealotcc.com. Any questions regarding application process, please contact Shannon Rynkiewicz at 585-381-7120.

Additional Information

Why Should You Apply?

- Competitive Wages
- Great Benefits
- Reasonable Hours – no nights or weekends
- Opportunities for professional development and career advancement
- You get to work with children!

Hide