Organization Statement

Agri-Business Child Development (ABCD), founded in 1946, is committed to providing the highest quality early childhood education and social services to farm worker and other eligible families across New York State. Children, 8 weeks old through school age, benefit from the culturally and linguistically diverse programming recognized nationally as a hallmark of Agri-Business Child Development.

As a provider of Migrant and Seasonal Head Start, Head Start, and Early Head Start, Agri-Business Child Development ensures that each child receives comprehensive educational, health, and social services. ABCD centers are accredited by the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) and are licensed by the New York State Office of Children and Family Services.

ABCD provides services to approximately 900 children, depending on funding. Services are provided in thirteen (13) centers across New York State, primarily in areas of highest farm worker family concentrations.

With a wide range of services to support children and their families, and a passionate staff dedicated to serving children, ABCD is a nationally recognized provider of early childhood education and social services to farm worker and other eligible families across New York State.

Job Description

The CEO is charged with achieving the mission and goals of ABCD in a manner that is fiscally sound and reflects best practices in nonprofit management. With a solid financial base, comprehensive services for children and their families, and a national reputation for excellence,

ABCD is in a firm position as it seeks to build upon its success serving children of farm workers and other eligible families across New York State.

Responsibilities

- The ideal candidate is a proven leader who:
 - Understands the power of collaboration, and the power of the early childhood education profession
 - Approaches their work through the lens of service
 - Has extensive experience and success creating and leading high performing teams that foster an inclusive and equitable culture of excellence.
- The CEO is responsible for the overall leadership and management of ABCD including:
 - Strategic direction, finances, fundraising,
 - Programs, staff, and external relations with funders, legislators, and others.

Qualifications

- A bachelor's degree from a four-year accredited college or university is required; an advanced degree is strongly preferred
- A minimum of five to ten years of senior managerial experience leading a nonprofit organization
- Background in nonprofit education, working with minority, immigrant, or low-income communities is preferred
- Experience working in Head Start or child and family programming is a strong plus, as is experience with trauma informed care.
- Understanding of farming lifestyle would also be a bonus.
- Fluency in Spanish is a definite asset.
- Some remote work possible, primarily working from ABCD's Schenectady Office
