Organization Statement

Morningside PlayCare cultivates the language genius, open mindedness, and wonder-filled hearts of young children. We do this by providing nurturing care, as we immerse children in the Mandarin and Spanish languages through play, authentic creative activities, Yoga and exploration of Nature.

Job Description

We invite you to join us at the leading edge of the early childhood education field. Be a teacher in our Mandarin/Chinese Immersion, play-based PreK4 classroom. You will have the opportunity to work with a small class of children in a private school dedicated to diversity and multilingualism. You will teach them your language while their brains are young and easily wired for bilingualism. You must be a native Mandarin speaker with experience teaching young children. We are a well established private school and a leader in the early childhood language immersion field. In addition to language immersion, our curriculum includes an emphasis on Nature Exploration, Yoga, and Art. We are looking for a creative individual who is enthusiastic about sharing her language and culture with young children. You will have an opportunity to grow in your career. Our beautiful facility and friendly community of professionals is looking for a talented teacher who loves children and growing as a professional. Salary range is based upon experience, skill, and credentials. We are willing to sponsor the right person for a work visa. Salary is based on years of classroom experience and demonstrated skill.

Responsibilities

- Teaching and nurturing a diverse classroom of young children;

- Creating curriculum content related to Chinese culture, and creating emergent curriculum based upon children's curiosity about nature;
