Organization Statement

Beit Rabban Day School is an innovative, non-denominational Preschool-8th Grade Jewish school on the Upper West Side of Manhattan. Beit Rabban thoughtfully combines progressive education with an emphasis on deep Jewish experience, intellectual rigor, and child-centered learning. The Gan (preschool) at Beit Rabban is a warm and play-based learning environment focused on emergent curriculum and inspired by Reggio Emilia.

Job Description

Beit Rabban seeks a full-time teacher for primary teaching responsibilities in our Early Childhood Program. This teacher will work closely with a co-teacher. Together, they will be responsible for the emotional, developmental, and spiritual growth of their class and of each student as a whole child.

Responsibilities

Qualifications

- ? Bachelor's degree. Master's degree preferred.
- ? Appreciation of the precious potential for expansive intellectual and emotional growth during preschool.
- ? Experience teaching preschool.

- ? Committed to facilitating the growth of each child intellectually, emotionally, and spiritually.
- ? Determined to meet the needs of diverse learners and build on the inherent talents of each child.
- ? Direct and kind approach to communication with students, colleagues, and parents.
- ? Joyful and creative approach to problem-solving.
- ? Hebrew fluency is a bonus, not a requirement: the ability to speak in Hebrew all day with students.
- ? Identify with Beit Rabban's ethos to be a community that celebrates our diversity of Jewish affiliation and practice and that grows a deep love and ownership of Judaism among our students.
- ? Commitment to highlight social justice, diversity, and inclusion when teaching.
- ? Preference will be given to applicants with experience in Reggio Emilia methodology.
